Dr. T. E. Tay.

Mr. Ang Kheng Leng (re-elected)

Mr. Yong Ngim Djin (re-elected)

Mr. Yap Ah Chuan (re-elected)

Hon. Auditor :

Mr. Mah Beng Guan.

Committee Meeting

Four meetings were held. At the first one held on 10th. April, 1959, the Committee co-opted the following:—

Mr. Wee Guan Chye — Chairman,
Literary & Social Sub-Committee.

The President, Mr. Cecil Wong, kindly consented to act as Chairman of the Games Sub-Committee.

Quorum

There was no difficulty in having a quorum at any of these meetings held in the evenings in the Garden Club (by kind permission).

73rd Founder's Day Dinner

Founder's Day Dinner was well attended by members, their wives, their friends and by some parents of Present Boys. An item which has become a feature of these dinners is the presence of teachers of A.C.S. who have retired. They were guests of the Association. Other guests included Bishop Amstutz, and other missionaries, Mr. & Mrs. Rumme Shaw, Presidents of other O.B.A.'s, Principals of other Secondary Schools, Officers of the Education Department and Dato Lee Kong Chian who replied on behalf of these guests the toast proposed by Mr. Chee Keng Lim.

Board of Governors

Five members represented your Association on the Board of Governors. These were elected by the General Committee at its first meeting. They were Mr. Cecil Wong (ex-officio), Dr. Ong Swee Law, Mr. Tan Boon Chiang, Dr. T. E. Tay and your Secretary. Alternates were Mr. Foo Kee Seng and Mr. Chen Jan Jee.

Building Project

The project at Coleman Street was completed with the Official Opening of the Shaw Auditorium by Tun Lim Yew Hock on Sunday, March 1st 1959. Members were invited to this function and also to the Concert which followed the week after.

More accommodation and better facilities for the study of science would be available with the completion of the F. S. C. block soon after your new General Committee assumes office in 1960.

O. B. A. Club House

The Committee decided to put up a decorative grille to enclose the space. Mr. Ang Kheng Leng would prepare the drawing and get estimates.

Sports

A full programme of sport was covered during the year in addition to the usual competitions with and amidst the Present Boys. The O.B.A. kept pace with the Present Boys at the Inter-School Sports and won the two invitation relays for Old Boys. The following represented the Old Boys viz.: Messrs. Tang Ngi Wah, Tan Tuan Seng, Victor Khoo, E. Frida and Siak Kok Leng.

In the Inter-O.B.A. soccer competition for the Marshall Shield, we were beaten by the odd goal in seven by a very strong Brother School's Old Boys' XI.

At the 45th Annual School Sports, the Old Boys took part in five events, the results being as follows:—

100 Yards (Open)

1. Victor Khoo.
2. Tan Tuan Seng.
3. Chan Onn Leng.

Obstacle Race

1. Lim Chew Slang.
2. Foong Weng Kee.
3. Tay Guan Choon.

100 Yards (Handicap)

1. Lim Chew Slang.
2. Boey Chwee Kim.
3. Ting Yoke Loong.

4 × 110 Yards Relay

1. Chan Onn Leng's Team.

4 × 110 Yards Inter O.B.A. Relay

Brother School O.B.A. team.

At the Annual School Carnival, the events for Old Boys resulted as follows:—

100 Metres Free Style

1. Tan Gek Kee.
2. Tan Boon Chiau.

4 × 50 Metres Relay

1. Tan Gek Kee's team.

The results of the Annual Past v. Present Matches were as follows:

Soccer — Present won by four goals to three.

Cricket — The match was drawn.

Hockey — Past won by three goals to two.

Membership

52 Old Boys joined the Association as Life Members; one Septennial and 22 Annuals making a total of 75.

63 of these had their admission recorded in the last issue of the A.C.S. Magazine (1958-1959); the remaining 12 who joined after the Editors had gone to press will have their names recorded in the next issue.

Of the 22 Annuals 5 are women. We are grateful to Mr. Chee Keng Lim, the Assistant Treasurer for the above increases, and heartily congratulate these girls for being the first to join up and for showing the way. They are:— Miss Chang Ming Yee; Miss Cheng Shao Ying; Miss Goh Li Kian; Miss Lee Wan and Miss Tan Chye Lian.

Finance

Due to careful husbanding the position continues to be sound. Your study of the Statement of Accounts is invited.

Acknowledgements

Your Committee acknowledges with thanks the generous hospitality of the President, Mr. Cecil Wong, at all Committee Meetings.
