Pingat Jasa O.B.A.:

Gold medals were awarded to Master Heng Boon Keng Edmund and Master David Wong Cheong Fook and the Silver to Master Roy Chan Kum Wah.

Founder's Day Reunion Dinner:

The Guests of Honour at our 86th Founder's Day Re-union Dinner were the Minister of Home Affairs, Dr. Wong Lin Ken and Mrs. Wong. Among the distinguished guests were representatives from the Ministry of Education, the Methodist Church, the Universities, School Principals, retired teachers and other O.B.A. Presidents.

Once again it was a successful evening and the guests were entertained by the A.C.S. Jazz Ensemble which livened things up with current hit tunes, followed by a Cultural Entertainment programme presented by students of the School.

To toasts to the School and guests by our President, Mr. Alan Yeo, Mr. Chee Keng Lim, the Principal replied on behalf of the School and Dr. Wong congratulated the School on its 86th Anniversary and he exhorted parents to be more firm with their children so as to build a disciplined and well-ordered society of the future.

Mrs. Wong was called upon to present souvenirs to three retired teachers who had given the better half of their lives in service to the School. They were Mr. Gan Kee Tian, Mr. P.V. Thomas and Mr. Chua Keng Lin. O.B.A. Gold medals were presented to Mr. Alexander Chan and Mr. Lee Tzu Yang for being the best all-round students in the H.S.C., and the Silver medal to Master Michael Chia in the School Certificate Class of 1970.

Past vs. Present:

The Present boys recaptured the Challenge Trophy from the Past after losing for several years. The Present boys won the Series by 7 games to 5. They were successful in Badminton, Basketball, Soccer, Sepak Takraw, Table Tennis, Athletics and Swimming, whilst the Past beat them at Chess, Hockey, Tennis, Volleyball and Water Polo.

Finance:

The financial position continues to be satisfactory.

Membership:

During the year under review new members totalled 108 and the membership stands at 1983 of which 75 are women.

Acknowledgement:

The Committee acknowledges with thanks the kind hospitality of the President and Mrs. Yeo at all Committee meetings which were held at their home.
